ANNOUNCEMENT

IT is with no small degree of regret that I am disposing of my herd of Shorthorns. My physicians have cautioned me to be careful of my health and this alone is the reason for this sale. I am retiring from the farm and curtailing my business operations materially. My herd is in fine production condition. It never was in better shape to go on with and the cattle should prove most satisfactory on the farms of the new owners.

The herd bulls Mar-Don Rodney and Maxwalton Jacolus, two richly bred sons of Rodney and Maryvale Perfection a son of the Champion Queen's Guard, are bred for the best of service. My entire show herd sells also, and this will be an opportunity for showmen to select some mighty promising material for the next season's shows. I realize that I am selling at a time when the coming years are full of promise for the breeder of Shorthorns, but all these advantages accrues to the man who makes an investment in good breeding stock at this time. They are yours at your price. I am selling at Galesburg as a most convenient center and for the further reason that the train service is anything but good where I am located.

I extend a cordial invitation to all to attend my sale at C. B. & Q. Sale Pavillion, Galesburg, Ill., Wednesday, November 11, 1925.

Yours truly,

J. J. Chambers.

Buchanan & England, Bridgeport, Ill., will sell their herd at Galesburg, November 10. Plan to be present for these two big breed days.
